JUNE 2010

Hello Again

Summertime brings us a time of sport and a time for some patriotic pride. England Cricketers have already won the ICC World Twenty 20 championship and this month the Test team take on Bangladesh before they take on the Australians in the One day Internationals. The Wimbledon Tennis Championships also start later this month and can a Brit win it for the first time since Fred Perry's win in 1936?. Thirty years after Fred Perry's victory came the one and only time that England won the football World Cup and it will be all eyes on the present team as they play in South Africa. Fly the flag.

I have been asked by the management company to mention an update on the levy situation. There correspondence is shown in full below:

“THANK YOU - The vast majority of ploholders have taken notice of our business-like approach to the collection of levies this year. However, a small number have either forgotten to pay their dues yet or are ignoring our words. If you have not yet made arrangements to pay, you are reminded that the LAST day for payment is 30th MAY. After that date details of arrears will be passed to a collection agency who will act for us in the collection of money owed. You are also reminded that this will incur an extra charge of 18% to the debtor. Please contact the office ASAP if you need any information on payment methods. - MANCO”

+++++++ BBQ Time ++++++

From 5.00pm on Sunday 30th May (Spring Bank Holiday Weekend) there will be a Barbecue at the club. Lorraine will have lots of goodies for sale including the BBQ regulars, burgers, sausages and chicken plus chips and salad. To make that BBQ go with a swing then check out the juke box's varied content.

CLUB WEB SITE

I have had some advance notice that work is due to take place on the club website soon. This is a great way in informing not only residents on the estate but those from further away about what is happening. Have you any ideas on what the club could contain on it's website? If so put it on paper and leave it at the office for the attention of Manco.

Neighbourhood Watch

Summertime- With the advent of warmer weather it is all too easy to leave doors and windows open when you go out or go into the garden to enjoy the sun. Opportunist thieves may be out and about during the summer months looking to gain easy access into properties so please double check.

Remember unsecured property may lead to invalidation of contents insurance.

Please be wary of leaving bikes, toys and other items unattended as these are another easy target for the opportunist thief.

Please be a good neighbour and report anything suspicious to the police.

A boxer goes to the doctor because he couldn't sleep. "Try counting sheep" says the doc. "I did," replies the boxer but every time I get to nine I stand up.

World Cup Footy on the Big Screen

I mentioned earlier about the football World Cup, and each of the Group matches involving England will be shown on the big screen in the Sports Bar. These are the games against the USA (7.30pm Sat 12th June), Algeria (7.30pm Fri 18th June) and Slovenia (3pm Wed 23rd June) Lorraine will provide food during these matches. A great atmosphere to watch the match so come along.

Housekeeping Team Brendan has forwarded some info regarding the house keeping team. They are doing some painting and a tidy up in reception and behind the scenes on the 12th June. Volunteers are always welcome and a job can always be found for a willing pair of hands. Leave a note for Brendan at the office if you can help out.

Theme Night...Did you enjoy the recent VE Anniversary Theme Night? It brought in some new faces from the estate who do not normally come to the club, and that is always a great thing to happen. So the Trustees are wanting to do some more themed evenings and are asking you for suggestions on what themes may be welcomed. It could be something nostalgic like a 60's night, or maybe foreign shores of Spain or the Caribbean, or a sports theme etc. the list is endless. So if you have a good idea, something to dress up for, then write it down and leave it the office for the attention of Manco
